ALDERMAN CHARLES EDWARD BECK BOWMAN

their sincere thanks and appreciation for the distinguished manner in which he has served as Lord Mayor of the City of London during the past year.

Always enthusiastic and good-humoured, Charles has travelled extensively and visited more than 25 countries and six of the seven continents. From the Americas, Asia and Africa to the World Economic Forum at Davos, as Lord Mayor he has worked tirelessly as a passionate advocate on behalf of the UK's financial and professional sectors.

Charles' Mayoral theme, the Business of Trust, has sought to create better business trusted by society. The programme has been shared with influential stakeholders across the City and beyond. Through Charles' initiative to create and improve the programme, he has ensured that this important and necessary work will continue to thrive in the future. Furthermore, thanks to his personal efforts, the relationship between the Mayoralty and Department of International Trade is closer than ever, with the Lord Mayor having a place on the Board of Trade.

During his time as Lord Mayor, Charles has hosted many special events to further economic diplomacy and promote London as a centre for business. The Commonwealth Business Forum was a particular success, at which Charles hosted one President and four Prime Ministers amongst others. It succeeded in strengthening further the developing bonds with the Commonwealth.

We on the Court also wish to pay tribute to Samantha, the Lady Mayoress, who had an equally busy and energetic programme. A myriad of activities including sponsored swims and karaoke, and the ever-present promise of sheep being introduced to Mansion House, ensured that the year went by like Greased Lightning. We express our gratitude for all her contributions.

In taking their leave of Charles, their 690th Lord Mayor, Honourable Members reflect that his has been a special and outstanding Mayoralty. We trust that Charles, Samantha, Grace and Charlotte will look back on a unique year with the greatest pleasure, pride, and many happy recollections.

5. Resolutions There were no resolutions.

6. Mayoral Visits The Right Honourable The Lord Mayor reported on his recent visits to Cardiff and Bristol.

The Right Honourable the Lord Mayor advised that he would soon be travelling to the USA, Canada and Mexico promoting fintech and green finance.

The Right Honourable the Lord Mayor finished his update by advising that he and the Chair of Policy and Resources would be continuing the Members Briefings on the international programme with the next meeting taking place at Mansion House on 4 February 2019.

12. Questions

McMurtie, A. to the Chairman of the Finance Committee

Cleaning of the exterior of Mansion House

Andrew McMurtie asked a question of the Chairman of the Finance Committee concerning the cleaning of the exterior of Mansion House and the placement of planters between the columns of the portico facing Bank Junction.

Responding, the Chairman of Finance advised that the project for the stonework cleaning of Mansion House had been agreed in principle by the relevant Committees, with work now being undertaken with key stakeholders to produce a fully phased programme of works. The Chairman noted the Scheme would also include an upgrade to the lighting of the exterior of the building and that the overall programme of works would be presented to the Corporate Assets Sub Committee and Projects Sub Committee in April 2019 for approval to proceed. Once the works were completed, consideration would be given to installing planters on the portico.

*Dostalova, K. to the Chair of the Policy and Resources
Committee*

The Sports Strategy

Karina Dostalova asked a question of the Chair of the Policy and Resources Committee with regard to the delay in producing a Sports Strategy.

The Chair in response, confirmed that a paper on the City of London Corporation's sports engagement would be considered by the Public Relations and Economic Development Sub Committee and the Policy and Resources Committee the following week. The report would cover the City of London Corporation's existing engagement with sport as well as other strategic opportunities. The Chair explained that officers had considered how best to take a strategic approach before presenting the report to Committee and there would be no further delays. The Chair advised that the "Enhancing Sports Engagement" paper was available on the City of London Corporation's website and agreed that the work on the open spaces, which provided sports facilities for thousands of Londoners, should feature prominently in the strategy.

In reply to a supplementary question from Ms Dostalova regarding the amount of funding invested in sports, the Chair advised that expenditure could be discussed at the Committee meetings the following week.

*Ali, M. to the Chairman of the Freedom
Applications
Committee*

Honorary Freedoms

Munsur Ali asked a question of the Chairman of the Freedom Applications Committee concerning the length of time taken to implement the revised process regarding Honorary Freedoms and requested an update on the outcome of the Remembrancer's correspondence with Aung San Suu Kyi.

Responding, the Chairman of the Freedom Applications Committee referenced the approval given at the September 2018 Court meeting to change the process for awarding an Honorary Freedom, as well a new process to remove an Honorary Freedom, noting that both were approved without question or comment. He suggested that this indicated it was right to have taken time to prepare those considered proposals. He advised that the Freedom Applications Committee had considered the matter of Aung San Suu Kyi but had not yet asked the Remembrancer's Office to write to her. The Committee would continue to monitor the situation in Myanmar, but it was not currently the time nor circumstance to begin to activate the process which could lead to the removal of an Honorary Freedom.

In response to a supplementary question from Mr Ali as to whether the Court of Common Council should look to revoke the Honorary Freedom awarded to Aung San Suu Kyi, as well as notice given by the Member that he would be presenting a Motion to the Court in January to commence this process the Chairman explained that, as previously mentioned, the Committee would continue to actively monitor the situation, with the Remembrancer providing an update at each Committee meeting. The Committee had been clear that any decision taken should be directed at effectiveness, impact and outcome in Myanmar and the Committee shared the Government's keenness to ensure whatever steps taken, were directed at the right target and would have the right effect. The Chairman offered to work with Mr Ali to gauge the balance of opinion amongst Members regarding the proposed Motion.

13. Motions

Harrower, G.;
Bostock, M.

Amendment – That the Motion be altered as follows “That this Honourable Court resolves to instruct the Town Clerk to convene, by 20 December 2018, a working party which is:

(a) to consist of:

- iv. up to five Members of this Court:
 - o one of whom is to be the Chairman;

in order to inform an appropriate dispensations policy;

(c) to obtain such advice as the working party may consider appropriate from one or more Queen’s Counsel who have expertise in administrative law and who have not previously been instructed on behalf of the Corporation, and to commission research on the dispensation policies of other local authorities; and

(d) to report its recommendations to this Court for consideration at its meeting in March 2019.”

(e) That this Honourable Court requests that the Standards Committee should adopt a position where members would generally be granted a dispensation for the duration of their term of office to speak on all matters where they have an engaged disclosable pecuniary interest that has been disclosed”

Upon the amendment being put, the Lord Mayor declared it not to be carried.

Mr Harrower introduced the original Motion to the Court. A Member raised a point of order that as the amendment had been rejected discussion should only focus on the original Motion, as per the summons. The Lord Mayor concurred with the Member in their point of order and directed Mr Harrower to address himself solely to the original motion.

Mr Harrower explained that the purpose of the Motion was for a working party to be formed which would consider how to resolve the issues with the dispensations policy and the Standards Committee; the working party would look to provide a resolution on when Members could speak and vote at Committee and would report back to the Court with their recommendations.

McGuinness,
C. Deputy;
Bottomley,
K.D.F., Deputy.

Amendment – That the Motion be altered as follows “That this Honourable Court fully respects and supports the expectations of residents and other constituents to be represented by those whom they elected, whilst also acknowledging its statutory duty to uphold the highest standards in public life and the need for Members to disclose and act to minimise any potential conflicts of interest, particularly those defined in The Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012.

The Court recognises the difficult balancing act that the Standards Committee has had in upholding the law and allowing Members to carry out their legitimate duties representing their Wards. With regret the Court feels that the Committee may have adopted too rigid an approach with regard to dispensations for Members representing residential areas with respect to speaking on issues affecting their constituents.

The Court therefore requests that the Standards Committee should, as part of the current review of its policy and guidance on dispensations, adopt a position where Members would generally be granted a dispensation to speak (but not vote) on all matters concerning their Ward where they have an engaged disclosable pecuniary interest other than when that disclosable pecuniary interest would be directly and materially impacted by a matter to be determined at a meeting of the Court or one of its committees or sub-committees, subject of course to the proper exercise of the statutory discretion in each case.”

In proposing her amendment, the Chair of the Policy and Resources Committee explained that there was concern amongst Members and some residents as referenced by Mr Harrower, however a lengthy review of the Standards regime had only just taken place, the outcome of which was not yet fully implemented, the dispensations regime was still under review by the Standards Committee, and the proposed amendment to the Motion was a proportionate and balanced approach.

The Chair of the Policy and Resources Committee noted the difficult balancing act faced by the Standards Committee in upholding the law and allowing Members to carry out their duties when representing their Wards and therefore asked the Court to request the Committee to adopt a position where Members would be granted a dispensation to speak but not vote on all matters concerning their Wards when they have an engaged disclosable pecuniary interest, other than when that interest would be directly and materially impacted by a decision of the Court, or one of its Committees.

A number of Members spoke to express their views on the proposed amendment:

- Members noted that common sense should be applied when allowing Members to speak and vote, and Members had a personal responsibility to decide when it was not appropriate that they partake in decisions which could benefit them financially.

- Some Members felt they should be allowed to speak but must disclose their interests and when there is a conflict, Members should not vote, particularly with regards to Planning and Licensing matters.
- Members commented that a draconian approach may have been enforced with regards to Members voting on matters, but Members must comply with the law.
- Legal advice had been sought and provided on a number of occasions and the next step should be for the Standards Committee to look at the process again.
- Members noted that a comprehensive review of processes had just taken place with the outcomes being implemented and there was no need for a further review at this stage.
- Some Members requested that the amendment be made stronger; the Standards Committee should look to implement a whole term agreement to allow Members to conduct their business properly, which was a process used by other Local Authorities. Members expressed concern about the disenfranchisement of the residents and the importance of residents being assured that their elected representatives could speak and vote on matters. Some Members raised their concerns as to whether the Standards Committee could respond to the issues raised.
- It was noted by Members that the Barbican Residential element should be factored into the wider issue of dispensations and the standards framework, however Members were reminded of the relevant legislation that would need to be applied to all who live on an estate where the City of London Corporation owned the freehold and how this affected their ability to vote on matters concerning that estate.
- Some Members noted the requests made regarding Members taking personal responsibility as to when they could speak or vote, but clear guidance should be issued and an appropriate dispensation policy should be in place.

Thomson,
J.M.D. Deputy;
Broeke, T.

Motion – That, in accordance with Standing Order 11(9), the Question be now put.

Upon the Question being put, the Lord Mayor declared it to be carried.

The Amendment submitted by Deputy McGuinness, seconded by Deputy Bottomley, was therefore put, upon which the Lord Mayor declared it to be carried.

Further discussion took place on the substantive Motion, as now amended, during which the following views were expressed:

- A Member commented on the uniqueness of the Planning and Licensing Committees which differed to other City of London Corporation Committees. A question was raised as to whether the Planning Committee should no longer be a Ward Committee to remove the element of conflict.
- The Chairman of Standards spoke in response to the discussion and noted that the Committee welcomed input, but whatever the expectations may be, the legal limitations must not be lost sight of. It was added that if Members required guidance regarding an engaged disclosable pecuniary interest, the Comptroller and City Solicitor would be able to provide advice.

- A Member spoke against asking the Standards Committee to look at the process again, but instead the establishment of a new system should be considered.

Anderson, R.K.

Amendment – That the Motion be altered to include the words “when the DPI is a lease or tenancy from the City Members may vote when the matter does not relate particularly to the Members’ lease or tenancy”.

Discussion took place and in response to the suggestion that this proposal be considered by the Standards Committee as part of their review, Mr Anderson sought leave to withdraw his amendment with that caveat.

The Court gave leave for the suggested alteration to the amendment to be withdrawn.

The Chair of Policy and Resources replied to the debate, thanking Members for their comments noting that Members would like to give the Standards Committee a clear steer on there being a permissive approach, and the importance of clear guidance on when Members can speak and vote.

Mr Harrower spoke to conclude the debate noting the mood of the Court was against his proposals.

The substantive Motion, as amended, was then put and the Lord Mayor declared the Motion, as amended, to be carried.

Resolved – That this Honourable Court fully respects and supports the expectations of residents and other constituents to be represented by those whom they elected, whilst also acknowledging its statutory duty to uphold the highest standards in public life and the need for Members to disclose and act to minimise any potential conflicts of interest, particularly those defined in The Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012.

The Court recognises the difficult balancing act that the Standards Committee has had in upholding the law and allowing Members to carry out their legitimate duties representing their Wards. With regret the Court feels that the Committee may have adopted too rigid an approach with regard to dispensations for Members representing residential areas with respect to speaking on issues affecting their constituents.

The Court therefore requests that the Standards Committee should, as part of the current review of its policy and guidance on dispensations, adopt a position where Members would generally be granted a dispensation to speak (but not vote) on all matters concerning their Ward where they have an engaged disclosable pecuniary interest other than when that disclosable pecuniary interest would be directly and materially impacted by a matter to be determined at a meeting of the Court or one of its committees or sub-committees, subject of course to the proper exercise of the statutory discretion in each case.

The Office of the Parliamentary Counsel is responsible for drafting Government bills and for giving legal advice to Government on matters relating to parliamentary bills. The Office was founded in 1869.

It was proposed that, to mark the 150th anniversary, the City Corporation hosts a lecture given by First Parliamentary Counsel, Elizabeth Gardiner, followed by an early evening reception and small dinner.

(B) Honourable Artillery Company Parade and Reception

The Honourable Artillery Company (HAC), formed in 1537 under a charter granted by King Henry VIII, is Britain's oldest regiment. The HAC has always had a very close connection with the City Corporation and City of London, and the HAC regularly supports the City at a number of high-profile events including State Banquets, Remembrance Sunday and the Lord Mayor's Show.

It was proposed that the City Corporation host a parade in Guildhall Yard followed by a reception in Guildhall during spring / summer 2019 to mark the Honourable Artillery Company's service during the First World War.

It was there recommended that hospitality be granted for an early evening reception following a parade in Guildhall Yard to mark the HAC's service during the First World War and that arrangements be made under the auspices of the Hospitality Working Party; costs to be met within approved parameters.

Resolved – That hospitality be granted for an early evening reception following a parade in Guildhall Yard to mark the HAC's service during the First World War and that arrangements be made under the auspices of the Hospitality Working Party; costs to be met within approved parameters.

(C) London's Small Museums Reception

There are over 300 museums in London ranging from major national museums such as the British Museum and the Tate to medium-sized and smaller museums. The City Corporation supports the Museum of London, and runs Guildhall Galleries, Keats House, Tower Bridge Museum, Monument and the City of London Police Museum.

Over the last twelve months in the City, museums and galleries have attracted over 5 million visitors, just under 80% of all visits to City attractions, demonstrating their significant value to the tourism economy. It was proposed that the City Corporation hosts an early evening reception to recognise the contribution small museums make to London. It would also be an occasion on which to celebrate the opening of a new museum in the City of London, with the relocation next year of the Museum of Philatelic History to the City.

It was therefore recommended that hospitality be granted for an early evening reception to celebrate London's small museums and that arrangements are made under the auspices of the Culture Heritage and Libraries Committee; costs to be met within approved parameters.

Gateway 4b: Blackfriars Bridge Parapet Refurbishment and Bridge Re-Painting

The Court considered a report of the Planning and Transportation Committee which recommended approval be given to a programme of works from Gateway 4b to Gateway 5.

Gateway 3/4 approval had been provided for a full refurbishment of Blackfriars

Bridge with repair and replacement of the cast iron features as required; working around the current access restrictions. The project would significantly improve the aesthetics of the structure and protect its fabric. It would also repair the parapets to prevent future water ingress and protect the structure.

Since Project Proposal (Gateway 2), estimated costs have increased by £3,570,000 owing to better understanding of the full implications of the access restrictions, particularly because of the Tideway Tunnel works site. The estimated total cost of the project was now £8,570,000 and the Court's approval to proceed at Gateway 4b was therefore sought.

If the project was not progressed, the appearance of the bridge would further deteriorate and ultimately, the lifespan of the structure would be significantly reduced. The City would also be seen to be failing to meet its obligations under the Blackfriars Bridge Act 1863 and the Corporation of London (Bridges) Act 1911 to maintain and repair the bridge.

The next step would be to progress the project to Gateway 5 (expected October 2019).

Resolved – That progression of the programme of works from Gateway 4b to Gateway 5 be approved.

The Epping Forest and Commons Committee is made up of 12 Common Councilmen and 4 Verderers of Epping Forest, as specified by the Epping Forest Act (1878).

Following the untimely death in service of Peter Adams MBE, who served as a Verderer of Epping Forest since January 1997 until 6 April 2018, and in accordance with the Epping Forest Act (1878), the Epping Forest and Commons Committee appointed a working party to recruit to this position. Following completion of the recruitment process, the Epping Forest and Commons Committee unanimously recommend that Nicholas Munday be appointed as Epping Forest Verderer (South).

Gambling Act 2005: Review of Statement of Licensing Principles

The Court considered a report of the Licensing Committee which recommended agreement of the draft Statement of Licensing Principles; The Gambling Local Area Profile; and the Guidance on Undertaking Local Gambling Risk Assessments.

The Gambling Act 2005 requires all licensing authorities to produce and publish a Statement of Licensing Principles ('policy'). The City Corporation produced its first such statement, as prescribed by the statutory timetable, at the time the Act came into force in January 2007. The legislation requires that all authorities review their policy at least every three years. This policy was last reviewed in January 2016 and therefore is required to be reviewed by January 2019.

The City Corporation has now completed its work on producing a Local Area Profile in order that licensees can fully assess the local risk to the licensing objectives posed by their gambling operations. The updated Policy and the two documents 'Local Area Profile' and the 'Guidance on Undertaking Risk Assessments' formed the basis of the proposals which went out to consultation.

Resolved – That the draft Statement of Licensing Principles; The Gambling Local Area Profile; and the Guidance on Undertaking Local Gambling Risk Assessments be agreed.

Report of Urgent Action Taken: Gateway 4b – York Way/Middlesex Street Estate Communal Heating, Hot Water and Ventilation Works

The Court received a report advising of action taken under urgency procedures to allow the Middlesex Street Estate and York Way Estate Communal Heating and Hot Water system replacement projects to proceed, being managed as two separate projects at an estimated cost of £5.2m.

In July 2018, the Projects Sub-Committee and the Community and Children's Services Committee approved a combined Gateway 3/4 project report relating to the replacement of the heating, hot water and ventilation facilities at both the York Way and Middlesex Street Estates.

Due to the project value being above £5m, it had been originally planned that the project would proceed down the 'complex' route, as per the project procedure. However, given the expected scope of the works at both Estates and their non-proximity to each other, officers proposed that separating the works into two discrete projects would be the best way to expedite activity. The Projects Sub-

Committee was supportive of this approach.

However, since that time it became apparent that it may be possible and desirable to award both projects to the same contractor. This would allow for economies of scale and thereby afford the opportunity to seek percentage reductions in tenders. Given the possibility that the two projects (whilst managed separately) could be delivered by the same contractor as part of a single overall contract, it was therefore prudent and appropriate to seek the approval of the Court.

Approval was therefore granted to allow the Middlesex Street Estate and York Way Estate Communal Heating and Hot Water system replacement projects to proceed, being managed as two separate projects at an estimated cost of £5.2m.

Having become apparent that Court approval was required, approval was sought and obtained under urgency procedures pursuant to Standing Order No.19 to allow for the tender exercises to be completed and contracts awarded, thereby minimising further delay to the project.

Resolved – That the action taken under urgency procedures be noted.
