Dear Mr Robert ,

Thank you noted , please treat this email as my formal objection to your proposal. Of 60 Bartholomew close and 90 Bartholomew close EC1A7HN London. Both premises will create public nuisance to the residents. Rubbish of catering and bar will attract more mice , rats and already we have foxes in the Bartholomew close. Joints of restaurant and Bars brings crime such as pushers of drugs. Such Smithfield restaurant and Fabricts. Fabric has been subject to drugs dealers and murder. As you may know Fabricts has been close for serious crimes for drugs and murder.

From the 9th of September I will have appointment with the press of News papers of London. And I will take the matter further.

Regards ,
P.T.Berrah

Dear Philippe,

There is a licensing process that we must follow. If there are representations to a licensing application then the application is determined at a public hearing.

In order for us to accept your comments as a valid representation to the licensing application by Stem & Glory (60 Bartholomew Close) you must submit a representation detailing why you think the grant of that licence application in its format will adversely impact one of the four licensing objectives – namely public nuisance, crime and disorder, public safety, protection of children from harm.

Please reply detailing this and we will inform you whether this is a valid representation – if so we will then contact you with details of the public hearing.

Regards

Robert

Dear Sue ,

I object to the licensing at 60 Bartholomew close London EC1A7HN.

Because we paid for quiet and peaceful area. And we will loose that. After the 9th of September I am going to send you picture. How Bartholomew close will be.

With 90 and 60 Bartholomew close.

I will do my very best to stop that.

I did get in touch with the news papers. I am waiting for theirs feedback.

Regards ,

Phillippe Tahar Berrah
