Main Report

1. The Police (Property) Regulations 1997 enable the surplus from the Property Act Fund to be used for charitable purposes. In 2008, the Committee reviewed the criteria for making grants in view of new requirements under the Charities Act 2006, including the duty to demonstrate public benefit. One of the changes agreed was that only registered charities will be eligible for a grant. The Constitution and Purpose of the Fund and the Criteria for Disbursements, as agreed by your Committee in November 2008 (with an amendment agreed in December 2011), are attached at Appendices A and B respectively.
2. The balance of the Fund now stands at £52,700 (as at 31st March 2012 – see appendix C). To date in 2012/13, a further £4,000 has been received in this financial year.

Requests from the Force

3. The Commissioner has requested that donations be made to three charities:-

- (a) The Royal Humane Society: (CC Reg. No. 231469)
The Royal Humane Society grants awards for acts of bravery in the saving of human life and, also, for the restoration of life by resuscitation. The awards are granted to those that have put their own lives at risk to save or attempt to save someone else. Since its foundation in 1774 the Royal Humane Society committee has reviewed over 86,000 cases and made around 200,000 awards. This charity delivers a service that meets section 2 (viii) of the Committee's disbursement criteria (as set out at Appendix B).
- (b) Supporting Families after Murder and Manslaughter (SAMM): (CC Reg. No. 1000598)
SAMM provides practical support to people affected by violent bereavement. It supports the families through the bereavement, helping them to recover and rebuild their lives. All of the SAMM's volunteers and trustees have been bereaved due to a murder or manslaughter. This victim support charity currently supports over 3,000 families throughout the UK.
- (c) City of London Widows and Orphans Fund: (CC Reg. No. 208175)
The City of London Widows and Orphans Fund provides financial assistance to orphans, widows or widowers of members and retired members of the force. The fund also provides financial assistance to families of members or retired members of the force who have become seriously ill. The charity directly provides welfare assistance to current or former police officers and their families.

Further requests

4. The following charities have been put forward by Members for consideration:-

- (a) The First Aid Nursing Yeomanry: (CC Reg. No. 249360)
The First Aid Nursing Yeomanry was formed in 1907 with the purpose of assisting both Civil and Military authorities in the United Kingdom during any major event, incident, or in planning, so as to protect life and relieve human suffering. This charity provides support to victims of a major incident.
- (b) Alongside You (CC Reg. No. 1129336)
Alongside You provides practical and emotional support for vulnerable children and families living with HIV in East London including home-based child care provision. The charity currently works with about 80 families and referrals are received regularly from hospitals, social workers, other HIV organisations and the families themselves.

- (c) City of London Police – Charity for Children (CC. Reg. No.294362)
The City of London Police Charity for Children aims to provide welfare support and relief for vulnerable, sick or disabled children and young people. Given the close link between the City Police and the charity the grant is recommended.
- (d) The Hampstead Marie Curie Hospice (CC. Reg. No. 207994)
Marie Curie Hospices provide a range of activities and services to help people with terminal cancer and other life-limiting illnesses achieve the best possible quality of life. This charity delivers services that meet section 2 (viii) of the Committee’s disbursement criteria.

Members are requested to consider making a grant of £1,000 to each of these charities.

APPENDIX A

POLICE PROPERTY ACT FUND – CONSTITUTION AND PURPOSE

1. The Police Property Regulations 1997 apply to property which is:
 - (a) in the possession of the police by virtue of an order of a court of summary jurisdiction in connection with police investigations of a suspected offence where the owner of the property cannot be ascertained; or
 - (b) in the possession of the police by virtue of a court order in connection with the seizure of property where the court was satisfied that the property had been used for the purposes of committing or facilitating the commission of any offence, or was intended to be used for that purpose.
2. The Regulations provide that where property has been held for a year, in relation to an order under paragraph 1(a) above and for six months, in respect of an order under paragraph 1(b) above (provided, in the latter case there has been no successful application by a claimant of the property or no successful appeal by the offender) then the property may be sold and the proceeds of sale shall be kept in a separate account called the Police Property Act Fund (“the Fund”).
3. The Regulations provide that monies accrued in the Fund may be invested and the income so derived shall become part of the Fund. The monies accrued in the Fund may be used to:
 - defray expenses incurred in the conveyance, storage and safe custody of the property and in connection with its sale;
 - pay reasonable compensation, the amount of which shall be fixed by the Police Authority, to persons by whom property has been delivered to the police;
 - make payments of such amounts as the Police Authority may determine for such charitable purposes as they may select.
4. The Chief Officer of Police may, at the request of the Police Authority, administer the Fund in accordance with the Regulations.
