Chief
Commoner

Pursuant to the decision of the Court of 13 September 2012, the Right Honourable The Lord Mayor invited Mr George Gillon to take office as Chief Commoner for the ensuing year.

George Marr
Flemington
Gillon
Roger Arthur
Holden
Chadwick

Resolved Unanimously – That this Honourable Court wishes to extend to,

Deputy Kenneth Edwin Ayers,
Member of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire its sincere gratitude for the manner in which he has undertaken the role of Chief Commoner over the past year.

Ken took up the post in April 2012 and served during an eventful year for the City of London; firstly the celebrations for Her Majesty The Queen's Diamond Jubilee and then the successful London Olympics and Paralympics.

Throughout the past year he has continued to develop the role and has carried out the many and varied, and sometimes difficult, tasks expected of the Chief Commoner with patience and with sound judgement.

In taking leave of the Chief Commoner and in thanking him formally and sincerely, his colleagues wish to express their appreciation not only for his resourcefulness and hospitality during the past year, but also for the enthusiasm, consideration and courtesy which he has shown. They wish both Ken and Ann continued good health and happiness long into the future.

25th April 2013

Deputy Kenneth Ayers was heard in reply.

Minutes Resolved – That the Minutes of the last Court are correctly recorded.

Overseas Visits The Right Honourable The Lord Mayor reported on his recent visits to Turkey, Korea, Japan, Estonia and Lithuania.

Past Members The Chief Commoner referred to a number of former Members of the Court who had not been re-elected at the recent elections. He thanked Stella Currie, Archie Galloway, Pauline Halliday, Peter Hardwick, Janet Owen and John Spanner who had contributed a great deal of time and effort over many years in support of the City Corporation's activities, taking on the burden of Chairmanships and having done so very well. He also thanked Nick Cressey, Greg Lawrence, Peter Leck and Mark Clarke for their support for the Corporation's work and wished all the former Members well for the future.

Robert Picton Seymour Howard, Deputy Resolved unanimously – That, on his retirement from this Honourable Court, the Members wish to place on record their warmest thanks to

Sir John Stuttard, Master of Arts

George Marr
Flemington

for the distinguished service that he has given to the City Corporation over the past twelve years. Elected as Alderman for the Ward of Lime Street in 2001, he was elected to the Office of Sheriff in 2005 and rose to the Mayoralty in 2006.

Whether on Corporation Committees or in the Mayoralty, Sir John brought an enthusiasm to all he did, to all he said. Keen to inspire others, during his mayoralty Sir John was eager to promote London as a place of learning and sharing skills and his appeal was dedicated to raising funds for cross border learning which aimed to encourage the transfer of knowledge from one country to another in order to improve cultural awareness and a greater mutual understanding.

When he stands down from Office next month, Sir John can take with him the very best wishes of all his colleagues on this Court for a long, happy and healthy retirement from civic life in the City.

Alderman Stuttard was heard in reply.

Charles Edward Lord, O.B.E., J.P., Deputy Resolved unanimously - That on his retirement from this Honourable Court, the Members wish to place on record their thanks to

Alderman Simon Walsh, Master of Arts

George Marr
Flemington
Gillon

for the dedicated service that he has given to the Corporation and to the City over the past twenty three years.

Simon's civic career started in 1989, when he was elected as a Common Councilman for the Ward of Farringdon Without, subsequently being elected as Alderman for the Ward in 2000.

He served on a large number of Corporation Committees and as Chairman of a number of them, most notably the Housing & Sport Development, Police and

25th April 2013

Licensing Committees. In each of these roles, he has given of his time and effort willingly and to great effect.

When he stands down next month, the Court will lose a man of principle and distinction and he will leave with the gratitude and good wishes of his colleagues and the hope that, perhaps, one day, he may return.

Kenneth Edwin
Ayers, M.B.E.,
Deputy

Resolved unanimously - That, on his retirement from this Honourable Court, the Members wish to place on record their thanks to

George Marr
Flemington
Gillon

The Honourable Philip John Remnant,
Commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire

for the service that he has given to the Corporation and to the City since his election as Alderman for the Ward of Bassishaw three years ago.

During his time as an Alderman, Philip's service was suitably recognised through the award of a CBE for services to the financial services industry and to the public sector and he has ably served on a number of the City Corporation's Committees where his colleagues have much appreciated his contributions.

When he stands down next week, he can do so with the hearty thanks of this Court and with our warmest good wishes for the future.

Alderman Remnant was heard in reply.

Questions

1) Brian Mooney asked a question of the Chief Commoner concerning dress worn for the presentation of Members to the Court.

In reply the Chief Commoner supported the approach of his predecessor for either morning dress or lounge suits to be worn for such presentations and he stated that this may be a matter for the Members' Privileges Sub Committee to consider.

2) Brian Mooney asked a question of the Chairman of the Policy & Resources Committee concerning the take up and turn-out of the business vote at the recent elections.

In reply the Chairman reported that according to the City Corporation's official occupier's database, there were 6,798 potential businesses that could have registered to vote in the recent City elections. Of those, 3,954 businesses actually registered, which represents a take-up of almost 60% of the business electorate. Based on that take-up, 19,712 individual business voters could have been registered to vote. The actual number of individual business voters who did, in fact, register was 15,581. This equated to a 79% take-up of eligible business voters.

He added that the overall average turnout across all the contested wards was approximately 30%. The comparable figure in 2009 was 26%. The average turn-out in the predominately business wards, was slightly less at approximately 29%. There was, however, a significant range in turnout between individual predominantly business wards - for example, in Castle Baynard the turnout was 16%, in Lime Street the figure was about 50% and in Cheap it was in the order of 38%.

The Chairman concluded that the City's emphasis must be on continuing to engage and foster the links that had been built with businesses to sustain the level of interest and increase the numbers further. In particular to encourage businesses to ensure that their voters reflect, so far as is reasonability practicable, the composition of their workforce.

(A) Corporate Plan 2013 – 2017

The Corporate Plan is the City of London Corporation's main strategic planning document, providing a framework for the delivery of our services. The Plan, a copy of which has been separately circulated, is a clear statement of our vision and strategic aims and sets out the key policy priorities for the next four years.

Members were consulted on the Plan in 2011 and are not due to be consulted again until later this year. However in the interim, to ensure that the Plan reflects our current circumstances, it is reviewed annually by the Policy Committee. We recently reviewed the Corporate Plan and are recommending a few minor changes.

The key changes are as follows:-

- Insertion of additional wording into the Introduction, reflecting the City's work in supporting London and the nation.
- Deletion of the previous Key Policy Priority (KPP) 5, relating to the Olympics and Paralympics.
- Splitting of the previous KPP4 into two KPPs, one relating to the City Corporation's work in supporting London's communities (new KPP4) and the other relating to the City Corporation's heritage and cultural offer (new KPP5).
- Rewording and updating the bullet points supporting each KPP.
- Replacement of the Core Value "Opportunity and prosperity for all" with a new Core Value "Working in Partnership".

No changes have been made to the Vision or Strategic Aims.

We recommend that approval be given to the Corporate Plan 2013-2017.

(C) Queen Elizabeth Prize for Engineering (QEPE) – report of action taken under urgency procedures.

20 March 2013

The Queen Elizabeth Prize for Engineering (QEPE) is a new global engineering prize aiming to recognise individuals of any nationality, working independently or as part of a team, directly responsible for advancing the application of engineering knowledge. The winners, which include the British internet pioneer Sir Tim Berners-Lee, will each receive a trophy, a share of the £1m prize and will be invited to attend an award ceremony in London on 25th June 2013. The biennial award has attracted significant media attention since its official launch in November 2011 by the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister and Leader of the Opposition. The award attracted nominations from more than 30 countries and the QEPE are keen to promote the inaugural award in the hope of it becoming the pre-eminent award in its field.

We considered that the City Corporation should support this event, which is to be held on 25th June 2013, by inviting the prize winners, together with Chief Executive Officers of the corporate sponsors; prominent City figures; government officials and policy makers and some leading business, academic and industry representatives to a luncheon in the Crypts. The time in which to arrange this was short and so action was taken as a matter of urgency pursuant to Standing Order No 19 and we now report the action taken in approving this hospitality, with the Policy and Resources Committee making the detailed arrangements and the cost being met from City's Cash within the approved cost parameters.

This will be a Committee event.

(D) Right Honourable The Baroness Thatcher of Kesteven LG OM FRS – report of action taken under urgency procedure

10 April 2013

With the funeral service for Baroness Thatcher being held in St. Paul's Cathedral, and having regard also to the City's recognition of her achievements in public service through the award of the honorary Freedom of the City some years ago, it seemed entirely appropriate that the City Corporation should invite those attending the service to Guildhall for a reception afterwards.

It was of course necessary to make the arrangements as a matter of urgency, obtaining approvals needed pursuant to Standing Order No. 19, and we now report the action taken. As well as the immediate family, those invited included current and former Heads of State, members of Her Majesty's Government and Opposition, Members of both Houses of Parliament and individuals with a personal connection to Baroness Thatcher (and the cost was met from City's Cash, within the approved cost parameters).

This was a full Court event.

A copy of the Fenchurch and Monument Area Enhancement Strategy has been made available in the Members' Reading Room and we recommend that it be adopted.
