Annex 2 - Conditions consistent with the Operating Schedule

- 1) The following activities are permitted under the terms of this licence:
 - a) Consumption of alcohol on the premises or the taking or supply of alcohol to any person residing in the licensed premises
 - b) The ordering of alcohol to be consumed off the premises, or the despatch by the vendor of the alcohol so ordered.
 - c) The supply of alcohol for consumption on the premises to any private friends of a person residing there who are bona fide entertained by him at his own expense, or the consumption of alcohol by persons so supplied.
- 2) The premises may be used for the provision of private entertainment, 24 hours a day, as previously permitted under the Private Places of Entertainment (Licensing) Act 1967.
- 3) Permission is given for the playing of recorded music.
- 4) Permission is given for the premises to open for all licensed activities from the commencement of trading on New Years Eve until the end of trading on New Years Day.
- 5) On no more than 12 occasions per annum the hours for the provision of licensable activities can be extended to such times as agreed by the Police, with 10 days written notice to the Police and Licensing Authority and with Police giving prior written consent in all cases.
- 6) On Sundays before a Bank Holiday the terminal hour for all licensed activities may be extended to those as of a Saturday.
- 7) In the event of a queue the registered door staff will monitor the length and direction of the queue in order to ensure it is orderly. Management will patrol the queue and notify patrons as soon as possible if they are not suitable for entry to the premises. Any such queue must be against the wall of the premises and anyone causing noise and disruption whilst queuing shall be refused entry.
- 8) A crime and disorder incident log book shall be kept and retained at the premises.
- 9) Glass is not to be taken outside the premises apart from those people seated at tables and chairs.

Conditions Relating to the Provision of Public Entertainment

Public music and dancing (including entertainment of the like kind) may take place at the above named premises on Weekdays and Sundays subject to compliance with the relevant City of London rules of management relating to the management of places of public entertainment and to the following additional conditions:

- 10) Where door supervisors are employed at the premises a register shall be maintained in which the name, SIA registration number and signature of all door supervisors employed shall be entered on a daily basis. Each entry must be verified by signature of the manager or such other person authorised by the management to do so. The register shall be available at all times for inspection by an officer of the City of London or Police.

11) No noise from any entertainment which takes place as a result of the exercise of this licence shall be audible at a distance of one metre external to the nearest noise sensitive property.

12) The dance floors shall be maintained at a size considered by the City of London to be sufficient to ensure that the premises are a bona fide music and dancing establishment.

13) Security controls at all points of entry shall be maintained by fully trained staff.

14) The licensee shall ensure that his staff operate an entry, departure and behaviour code agreed between the licensee and the City of London.

15) Continual CCTV monitoring of the entire premises shall be maintained with back up tapes available for an agreed period.

INFORMATIVE

The City of London requests that the management makes every effort to ensure that the patrons leave the premises quietly and without causing disturbance to persons residing in the locality. A notice to this effect should be exhibited in a prominent position.
