Subject: City of London Corporation Activities with Think Tanks, 2010-2015	Public
Report of: Director of Public Relations	For Decision

Summary

This report provides an updated list of the City of London Corporation's activities, 2010-15, with a range of think tanks from across the mainstream political spectrum. These activities form an integral part of the City Corporation's Communications Strategy 2015-18 and wider economic development priorities.

Recommendation

Members are recommended to note the overall activities with think-tanks.

Main Report

1. The City of London Corporation's activities with a range of think tanks from across the mainstream political spectrum is an integral part of the City of London Communications Strategy 2015-18 and wider economic development priorities. The think tanks' close relationship with and intrinsic knowledge of the political world allows the City Corporation to engage with senior policymakers, on relevant issues, through a variety of means, including public conferences, set-piece speeches and seminars, topical research projects, and occasional private dinners. All necessary efforts are made by officers to ensure that this programme of work is appropriately politically balanced.
2. This report features in an annexe a comprehensive list – arranged alphabetically – of activities undertaken by the City Corporation in partnership with respective think tanks; these activities have either taken place since 1 January, 2010, or are due to take place in the near future. It also indicates, where applicable, any membership or equivalent arrangements.
