Read.

Resolved – That this Court doth hereby assent to the admission of the said persons to the Freedom of this City by Redemption upon the terms and in the manner mentioned in the several Resolutions of this Court, and it is hereby ordered that the Chamberlain do admit them severally to their Freedom accordingly.

9. Legislation

The Court received a report on measures introduced by Parliament which might have an effect on the services provided by the City Corporation as follows:-

Statutory Instruments

Date in force

Housing Benefit and State Pension Credit (Temporary Absence) (Amendment) Regulations 2016, S.I. No. 624

28 July 2016

The Regulations reduce the length of temporary absence during which housing benefit can continue to be paid from thirteen to four weeks, in the case of absences outside Great Britain.

The Education (Pupil Registration) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2016, S.I. No. 792 1 September 2016

The Regulations require schools to notify local authorities (including the Common Council acting in that capacity) of pupils who join or leave the school part-way through the academic year, and strengthen the duties of schools and local authorities to investigate unexplained absences.

The Police (Amendment) Regulations 2016, S.I. No. 798

19 August 2016

The Regulations enable individuals to join police forces (including the City Police) at the rank of Inspector under a Government-approved 'direct entry' scheme.

The Education (Pupil Information) (England) (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2016, S.I. No. 808 1 September 2016

The Regulations require schools to record pupils' nationality, country of birth and proficiency to speak, read and write English on the pupil register maintained by local authorities (including the Common Council acting in that capacity).

(It was noted that the text of the measures and the explanatory notes thereon might be obtained from the Remembrancer's office.)

10. Ballot

Read.

Whereupon the Lord Mayor declared Keith Bottomley to be appointed to the Licensing Committee.

- (B) Health and Social Care Scrutiny Committee (one vacancy for the balance of a term expiring in April 2020).

Nominations received:-

Alison Jane Gowman, Alderman

Read.

Whereupon the Lord Mayor declared Alderman Alison Gowman to be appointed to the Health and Social Care Scrutiny Committee.

12. Questions

River Safety

Alderman Tim Hailes asked a question of the Chairman of the Port Health and Environmental Services Committee regarding safety on the river Thames.

In reply, the Chairman agreed that the issue was one of high importance to the City and outlined the various mechanisms through which the City Corporation engaged with the Port of London Authority and other relevant bodies to this end. Responding to a supplementary question, she reassured the Member that the City Corporation would highlight the importance of river safety during any consultation around the London Fire Brigade's forthcoming London Safety Plan 6.

Smoking in the City

Ann Holmes asked a question of the Chairman of the Port Health and Environmental Services Committee concerning the possibility of restricting smoking in the City to designated areas.

Responding, the Chairman set out the legal position in relation to such a proposal and highlighted the complexities that would be associated with this. She also highlighted existing activity undertaken by the City Corporation to limit the effects of smoking on children, making reference to the implementation of smoke-free zones in three City playgrounds.

Safety at Bank Junction

Deputy Joyce Nash asked a question of the Deputy Chairman of the Planning and Transportation Committee concerning safety at Bank Junction.

The Deputy Chairman reminded the Court of the tragic death of Ying Tao in 2015 and emphasised the City Corporation's determination to avert similar future incidents. He set out the steps being taken to improve road safety at the junction and reiterated the importance of reducing injuries, accidents and fatalities both at Bank Junction and across the City as a whole.

13. Motions

*Deane, A.J.C.,
Deputy; Welbank,
M., M.B.E.*

Motion - "That Paul Nicholas Martinelli be appointed to the Finance Committee for the Ward of Farringdon Without, in the room of Adam Fox McCloud Richardson?"
