Summary

This report outlines the development of the draft action plan which underpins the City of London Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy

The draft action plan sets out how the City of London Health and Wellbeing Board will deliver the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy in order to improve the health of City residents, workers and rough sleepers, based on five priorities:

- Priority 1: Good mental health for all
- Priority 2: A healthy urban environment
- Priority 3: Effective health and social care integration
- Priority 4: Children have the best start in life
- Priority 5: Promoting healthy behaviours

Recommendation(s)

Members of the Health and Wellbeing Board are asked to:

- Approve the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy Action Plan

Main Report

Background

1. The Health and Social Care Act 2012 requires Health and Wellbeing Boards to produce a Joint Strategic Needs Assessment (JSNA) and Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy (JHWS).
2. The City of London Health and Wellbeing Board approved its Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy in January 2017, following consultation with a range of stakeholders, including a series of local events and engagement with residents and workers in the City of London
3. The strategy outlined the Health and Wellbeing Board’s five priorities:
 - Priority 1: Good mental health for all
 - Priority 2: A healthy urban environment

- Priority 3: Effective health and social care integration
 - Priority 4: Children have the best start in life
 - Priority 5: Promoting healthy behaviours
4. An action plan which outlines how we will deliver the vision and priorities of the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy has been developed in conjunction with the Health and Wellbeing Advisory Group. Members of the Health and Wellbeing Advisory Group include senior officers across the City Corporation whose work contributes to improving the health and wellbeing of City residents, workers and rough sleepers. This includes officers from Markets and Consumer Protection, HR, Housing, Libraries and Community Safety. The City of London Police are also represented.

Proposals

5. The Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy Action Plan lists actions under the strategy's five priorities. The action plan aims to draw together the key pieces of work being done by the Corporation and its partners to improve health and wellbeing in the City of London.
6. To reflect the new action plan, the key performance indicators list will be refreshed. The Health and Wellbeing Board will be updated on the progress of the action plan and accompanying key performance indicators every 6 months.
7. Some of the main additions to the new action plan include the implementation of the Social Wellbeing Strategy, raising the profile of health and wellbeing across the Corporation and reviewing and re-commissioning childhood obesity services with the London Borough of Hackney.

Corporate & Strategic Implications

8. The Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy Action Plan supports the following priority from the Department of Community and Children's Services Business Plan: Priority Two – Health and Wellbeing: Promoting the health and well-being of all City residents and workers and improving access to health services in the square mile.

Implications

9. The Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy is a statutory document

Health Implications

10. The Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy Action Plan will have a positive impact on health and wellbeing in the City of London.

Conclusion

11. The City of London has a statutory requirement to produce a Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy which outlines the commitment to improving the health of City residents, workers and rough sleepers.
12. Health and Wellbeing Board Members are asked to approve the City of London Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy Action plan.
