Dear

The Police Pension Regulations 2015

I am writing to advise you that upon leaving the Force on ....., and under the provisions of the above Regulations you are entitled to a Deferred Pension.

Under the provisions of the above Regulations you are entitled to a Deferred Pension and I enclose a statement of your accrued pension benefits. Employment 1 refers to the benefits you have accrued in the Police Pension Scheme 2015, this portion of your benefits will be payable from your State Pension Age (SPA). Employment 2 refers to the benefits you had accrued in the Police Pension Scheme 1987 and this portion of your entitlement will become payable from your 60th birthday.

(Please note, the benefits accrued in Employment 1 can be claimed as early as age 55, however they will be subject to an actuarial reduction calculated with reference to how much earlier than SPA you elect to claim them.)

Your total benefits could become payable earlier than the dates quoted above if you should suffer a permanent break down in health, which would have precluded you from carrying out your duties as a police officer, had you remained in service.

The pension will be subject to the Pensions Increase Acts and will be increased annually in line with the cost of living index from the date of leaving the Scheme until the date your pension becomes payable and each year thereafter.

When your pension comes into payment you will be allowed to commute a portion of your pension in favour of a tax free lump sum payment. You will be contacted about three months prior to your retirement date, when you will be advised of the increased pension payable and provided with an option form in respect of commutation. It is essential therefore that you notify this office of any permanent change of address.

In the event of your death, whether or not your deferred pension has come into payment, your spouse may claim a pension, which is equal to ½ of your pension entitlement, by making an application to this office.

I would mention that it may be possible to transfer your rights to another pension arrangement and if you are interested in this you should ask your new pension scheme administrators to contact me. However, the rules regarding transfers-out of public sector pension schemes are very strict and depending on your new scheme this option may not be applicable.

I trust that the position is clear to you, but should you have any queries or disagree with any of the details provided regarding your pension entitlement please do not hesitate to contact

I am required to advise you that there is an internal dispute procedure should you be dissatisfied or have a complaint regarding your pension entitlement. An application form detailing the procedure, together with the name and address of the appointed official to whom the complaint should be sent may be obtained from the Pensions Office.
