

TOWN PLANNING

The following functions are delegated to the Chief Planning Officer & Development Director:

A) Development Management

42. To determine applications for outline, full and temporary planning permission under Part III of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 subject to the decisions being in accordance with policy, not being of broad interest and there being no more than 4 planning objections.