

Table 1: Estimated costs of removing the assets from the HARR: -

Site name	Ownership	Estimated Cost £
St Mary Somerset Tower	The City's freehold property but the developer has a long lease and responsibility to meet the cost of removing the asset from the HARR	Funded by the developer
London Wall (All Hallows)	Church of England property but under the Burial Act legislation the City has the responsibility to look after the churchyard	The City approved Cyclical Works Programme (CWP): Approx. £50,000
London Wall (St Alphage Gardens)	The City and Church of England	The City approved CWP: Approx. £90,000
Roman Wall (90 Gracechurch Street basement)	The City	The City approved CWP: Approx. £50,000
Kenley Common, WWII fighter pens (group of 4)	Multiple owners, including the City	Project cost: £1,043,100 Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) Grant: £936,900 Other external funding: £22,000 City Costs: £84,000
Kenley Common, WWII fighter pens (group of 7)	Multiple owners, including the City
Wanstead Park	The City; Wansted Park Sport Ground Limited; Church of England; London Borough of Redbridge.	HLF bid led by the City for Wanstead Park Heritage Project approx. £5,000,000 - Submission date to HLF in date to be confirmed.
Wanstead Park Conservation Area	Multiple owners including the City
Bunhill Fields Conservation Area	Multiple owners including the City	Conservation works programme - City approved CWP: approx. £300,000; HLF bid led by the City for Bunhill Fields project approx. £2,400,000 - Submission date to HLF in August 2018. (If successful this will hopefully help the removal of the Conservation Area from future HARRs.)
Ashted Park	Multiple owners including the City	To be confirmed