General
Purposes
Committee of Aldermen

Aldermanic Qualifications – Checks

The Court of Aldermen considered a recommendation of the General Purposes Committee of Aldermen relative to the introduction of checks in relation to Aldermanic qualifications.

It was recommended that the Court introduce a procedure based on the extant power of the Court of Aldermen post-election to examine and determine whether or not any person returned as Alderman Elect is a fit and proper person and qualified for the office. The procedure proposed relies on the use of a statutory declaration that an Alderman Elect is qualified for office. A declaration is required in respect of each qualification (with the exception of “not being an Alderman in another Ward” which is obviously known to the Court of Aldermen).

The procedure is designed to be effective, yet simple, proportionate and cost effective in terms of administration and minimises the processing of personal data. A statutory declaration is a declaration as to the truth of the facts and matters contained therein and made in accordance with the Statutory Declarations Act 1835. It is commonly used where relevant documents are not readily available.

Knowingly and wilfully making a statutory declaration that is false in a material particular is a serious criminal offence under s.5 of the Perjury Act 1911, carrying a sentence of up to 2 years imprisonment and/or a fine on conviction. A refusal to provide a statutory declaration as to qualification would be a reasonable ground for refusing to admit an Alderman Elect.

Resolved Unanimously: - That the Court of Aldermen adopt this new procedure with immediate effect to provide assurance that successful candidates satisfy the qualification requirements and instruct that appropriate amendments be made to the Corporation’s Elections guidance and the Wardmote Book to reflect this.

We, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, Your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, address Your Majesty to express our heartfelt condolences on the death of your mother and our beloved Queen. Her Majesty became the first Royal Princess to be admitted to the Freedom of our City by patrimony and honoured us with many visits, including the occasions of her memorable Jubilees. They all reinforced the strong links which bind our City to The Crown.

During her long and distinguished reign since her anointing as Sovereign, Her Majesty had steadfastly maintained her promise that her whole life would be devoted to the service of her peoples.

At her side was her beloved husband, His Royal Highness The Prince Philip The Duke of Edinburgh. Most sadly we recall his passing and her presence at his funeral in St George's Chapel, Windsor. It was a sombre occasion watched by many people across the world.

Your Majesty has now succeeded to the Throne of this ancient Kingdom. The Crown symbolises the very unity of our country – its peace, its liberty, its self-respect and pride upon which it has always depended and will always depend

May we humbly assure Your Majesty that you will always command the affection, the loyalty and the devotion of the Citizens, Freemen and people of our great City.
