In loving memory of a loving memory

In loving memory of that guy who sat here, fed the pigeons, always smiling, liked a good chin wag

In loving memory of that guy who sat here and longed for a reality that didn't so closely resemble hell

In loving memory of a world free from the circumscription of fear and greed

In loving memory of that white van man, I believe his name was Stan, always had a plan, he drove around flakes of bran

In loving memory of the slowly diminishing verdant vista
