

The map of Hampstead Heath is divided into six numbered zones, each with a distinct color and various landmarks. Zone 1 (dark green) is in the southeast, featuring Parliament Hill, the Saxon Ditch, and the Stone of Free Speech. Zone 2 (brown) is in the east, containing the Highgate Gate, the 95m Tumulus, and the Dukes Field. Zone 3 (blue) is in the center, home to the Priors Field, the Fairground Site, and the Ice House. Zone 4 (yellow) is in the southwest, including the Zoo, the Deer Enclosure, and the Water Garden. Zone 5 (light green) is in the west, featuring the Bull and Bush P.H., the North End, and the Sandy Heath. Zone 6 (purple) is in the northwest, containing the Great Wall, the Hampstead Heath Extension, and the Changing Rooms. The map also shows surrounding areas like Golders Green, Highgate, and Dartmouth Park, as well as major roads and public transport links.
