Summary

This report sets out the proposed timeline for developing the 2023–2027 Homelessness & Rough Sleeping Strategy.

Recommendation

Members are asked to:

- Note the report.

Main Report

Background

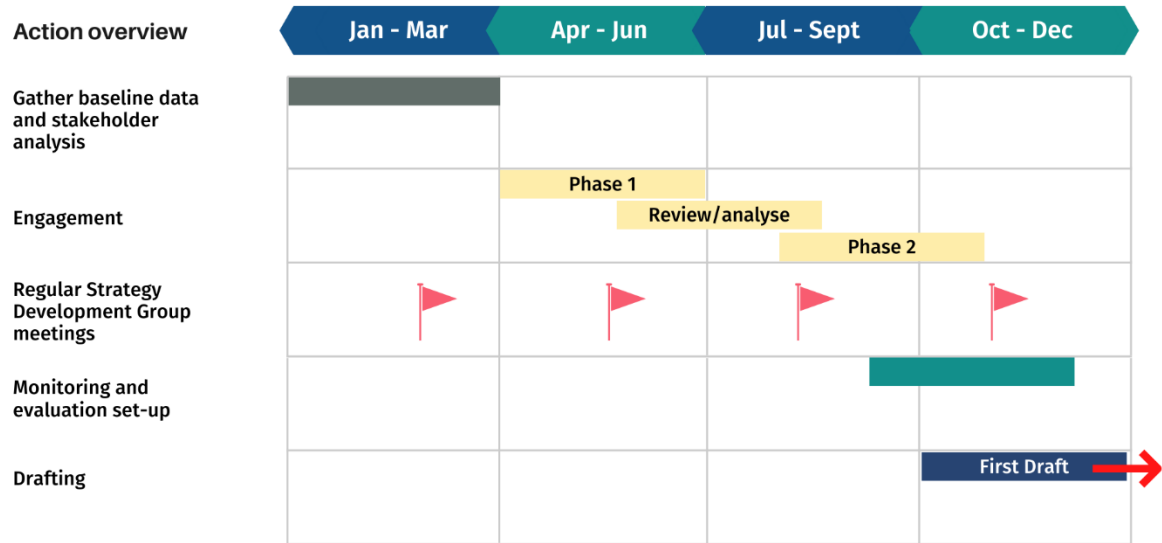

1. The 2019–2023 Homelessness and Rough Sleeping Strategy continues to run until the end of March 2023. To ensure that the next strategy for 2023–2027 is signed off and able to support another four-year action plan, development must begin now.

Current Position

2. The proposed timeline, Figure 1 below, outlines the main areas of work over the next 11 months. Consultation on the draft strategy, once agreed on by the Sub-Committee, will begin in January 2023.

4. The third line of work in Figure 1 refers to Strategy Development Group meetings. An action for this quarter of 2022 is to establish the membership of this group. It is proposed that the membership should include:
- Public Health
 - a service provider
 - the Homelessness and Rough Sleeping team

- a Member of the Sub-Committee,
- Commissioning
- someone with lived experience
- Finance and Communication representatives as needed.

How often this group meets will depend on how the strategy development process unfolds.

5. Work already undertaken includes:

- a SWOT analysis
- a breakdown of stakeholders categorised by level of engagement needed with each.

Corporate & Strategic Implications

6. Financial implications N/A

7. Resource implications N/A

8. Legal implications N/A

9. Risk implications N/A

10. Equalities implications – an equality impact assessment will be undertaken as part of the strategy development process. This assessment will be brought to the Sub-Committee for review prior to the first draft of the main strategy.
