My name is Dr. Nicola Diamond. I am a PHD and have a Psychoanalytic BPC reg.

I currently teach Film, Philosophy and Psychoanalysis at the Tavistock Clinic, and am a former senior lecturer in Psychosocial Studies at the University of East London. This included Philosophical approaches to Ontology and Epistemology.

I have known Andrew since earlier this year.

I have offered to help with insights into different art styles, philosophical movements and periods of history.

I am a clinician mostly engaged in phenomenology and post thinking, where I hope to add value and contribute.

If you have further queries, my email is:
