These reforms included ‘transitional protection’, for people closer to retirement. In December 2018, the Court of Appeal ruled that this directly discriminated against some younger pension scheme members – this is now referred to as the McCloud Judgement or McCloud. On 15 July 2019 the government confirmed that the difference in treatment would be remedied in the Police Pension Scheme. On 16 July 2020 the government published a consultation document that sets out options for how the	 Likelihood Impact	8	1 Oct 2023

Their document gives general details as to how the remedy proposal would work for the Scheme. On 10 March 2022 the Public Services and Judicial Offices Act 2022 received Royal Assent. The main purpose of the Act was to support the implementation of the McCloud remedy and is to be implemented in two phases. Phase one took effect from 1 April 2022 and moved all remaining active members of the legacy schemes into the 2015 Scheme. Phase two will be in respect of implementation of the deferred choice underpin. The Act confirms this must be in place by 1 October 2023, but further regulatory changes and guidance are required before this can happen. 24 May 2022				Constant
