1. Address of Condolence to His Majesty The King

Resolved unanimously – “May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled, Your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects, conscious of your deep feelings of loss occasioned by the death of our greatly respected Queen, express with our humble duty our own profound sentiments of sympathy and condolence.

*Duckworth,
S.D.O., O.B.E., D.L.,
Deputy; Luder,
I.D., J.P., Ald.*

We treasure many happy memories of Her Majesty's gracious presence within the City during the course of her long and dedicated reign. We greatly admired her physical and moral courage, her energy, discipline, strong sense of duty and care for her subjects. She showed that The Crown is not only a real symbol of our unity but also became a personal and living bond between subject and Sovereign, here and throughout the Commonwealth. The recent celebration of her Platinum Jubilee underlined this bond.

We in this City have been blessed by a long and deeply treasured association with The Crown. We proclaim our resolute loyalty and enduring affection for Your Majesty and wish you health and strength long to reign over us.”

The resolution having been passed nem. con., a number of Members took the opportunity to reflect on their own personal memories or interactions with Her Late Majesty and pay their respects.

The meeting commenced at 11.32 am and ended at 12.30 pm

BARRADELL.
