THIS IS AN EXTERNAL EMAIL

Good morning,

I am writing in connection with the application by Chicago Booth School of Business, of 1 Bartholomew Close, to receive a license for sale or alcohol, refreshments and the provision of entertainment from 9pm -3am, Monday to Sunday.

I own a flat at [REDACTED] Hogarth House, 61 Bartholomew Close and reside there. I am on the electoral role and am registered for council tax for Farringdon Within.

On the face of it, this is an absurd proposal. Bartholomew Close is a quiet residential area. Because of the nature of the area, sound reverberates around the area very audibly, particularly at night when things are very quiet. To allow student drinking, eating and entertainment to 3am Monday to Sunday is ridiculous, even more so since the application is on and off premises. I have no idea what is going through the minds of the management of Chicago Booth that they could conceive that this might be acceptable to anyone.

In summary, I strongly object to every aspect of this planning application and can see no grounds when any part of it should be granted.

Could you please acknowledge receipt of this email?

Regards
