City Police City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Police City Corporation C
The City of Landon Corporation and City Police will collaborate to improve the investigation of collisions to help inform and develop the approach to reducing read danger and preventing fatal and serious injuries City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation Transport for London Montrollen, Evaluation and accessed when or where it is needed within the City e.g. distributions and trauma begs City Corporation Transport for London Ambulance Service London Fire Bigging City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation Transport for London City Corporation City Cor		ACTION	LEAD AGENCY	OTHER AGENCIES
The City Police will undertake a process of explanatory Environmental and Visual Audits (EVAs), as is the case in the Meropolitian Police Service, to support the approach to roads policing, but to also share insight with partners including the City Police The City Police will undertake a process of explanatory Environmental and Visual Audits (EVAs), as is the case in the Meropolitian Police Service, to support the approach to roads policing, but to also share insight with partners including the City Police The City Corporation and City Police will work tagether to apply new and emerging processes to gamer learnings and to identify where causal and systemic factors have continued, resulting in fatal and serious collisions. The City Corporation will sent to develop and apply invovalve approaches and refer to the analysis to be interested to develop and apply invovalve approaches and refer to the analysis to be interested to develop and appropriate in the Square Mile The City Corporation will sent to develop and apply invovalve apply apply and the most afficult of times. City Police Works closely with emergency services submit a finite the most afficult of times. City Police Work closely with emergency services submit and the Police to ensure that medical equipment is readily available and accessable when or where it is needed within the City e.g. defibrillation and attenues bags City Co		POST COLLISION LEARNING ANALYSIS AND SUPPORT
The City Police will undertake a process of explanatory Environmental and Visual Audite (EVAs), as is the case in the Metropolitan Police Service, to support the approach to reads policing, but to also share insight with partners including the Copporation and TLL is inform other road danger reduction initiatives. The City Corporation and City Police will work beginner to apply new and emerging processes to gener learnings and to identify where causal and systems factors have combined, resulting in fetal and service collisions. City Police City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation MONITORING, EVALUATION AND DATA IMPROVEMENTS The City Corporation and data improvements, along with greater reporting, to reserve for returner thinking safety culture in the Square Mile City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Police City Corporation Transport for Landson Department monitoring evaluation and data improvements, along with greater	17	The City of London Corporation and City Police will collaborate to improve the investigation of collisions to help inform and develop the approach to reducing road danger and preventing fatal and serious injuries	City Police
Cty Police The City Corporation and Tit, to inform other road danger reduction initiatives. Cty Police The City Corporation and City Police will work together to apply new and emerging processes to garner learnings and to identify where causal and systemic factors have combined, resulting in fetal and serious collisions. City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Corpo	7.1	Expand the Go Look See protocol to other serious collisions in the City to extract learnings from the most serious and life-changing events.	City Corporation	City Police
The City Corporation and City Police will work together to apply new and emerging processes to garner learnings and to identify where causal and systemic factors have combined, resulting in falal and serious collisions. City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Police	7.2	The City Police will undertake a process of exploratory Environmental and Visual Audits (EVAs), as is the case in the Metropolitan Police Service, to support the approach to roads policing, but to also share insight with partners including the Corporation and TfL to inform other road danger reduction initiatives.
The City Corporation will identify opportunities to complete further data analysis to better understand risk on the City of London's streets. The City Corporation will identify opportunities to consider the form of the City Corporation of City C			City Police
The City Corporation will seek to develop and apply innovative approaches to develop a measure of risk in the City. The City Corporation will seek to develop and apply innovative approaches to develop a measure of risk in the City. City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation Transport for London Transport for London Transport will be improved for those that suffer the most from the effects of fital and serious collisions, with emergency service partners prioritised in access to collision sites. City Police Working with the London Ambulance Service (LAS) and the Police to ensure that medical equipment is readily available and accessible when or where it is needed within the City e.g. delibrillators and trauma bags City Police City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Police Condon Ambulance Service London Ambulance Service London Fire Brigade City Police London Fire Brigade City Police will further improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions. The City Police will further improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions. City Police City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Police City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation	7.3	The City Corporation and City Police will work together to apply new and emerging processes to garner learnings and to identify where causal and systemic factors have combined, resulting in fatal and serious collisions.	City Police	City Corporation
City Corporation City Corporation Transport for London Support will be improved for those that suffer the most from the effects of fatal and serious collisions, with emergency service partners prioritised in access to collision sites. City Police The City Police will ensure that it signposts and refers inclividuals to the specialist services that exist, to aid and support those bereaved or seriously injured at the most difficult of times. City Police City Corporation MONITORING, EVALUATION AND DATA IMPROVEMENTS Develop further monitoring, evaluation and data improvements, along with greater reporting, to foster a proactive forward-thinking safety culture in the Square Mile The City Police will inter improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions. City Police The City Corporation The City Corporation will explore wait as individual characteristics including disability and race. City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport City Corporation City	7.4	The City Corporation will identify opportunities to complete further data analysis to better understand risk on the City of London's streets.	City Corporation
Support will be improved for those that suffer the most from the effects of fatal and serious collisions, with emergency service partners prioritised in access to collision sites. City Police City Police City Police Work closely with emergency services when developing traffic restrictions to reduce potential impacts on emergency response times MONITORING, EVALUATION AND DATA IMPROVEMENTS Develop further monitoring, evaluation and data improvements, along with greater reporting, to foster a proactive forward-thinking safety culture in the Square Mile The City Police will further improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions. City Police City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation The City Corporation and City Police will further improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions. City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation The City Corporation and City Police will further improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions. City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport of London Department of Transport of London Department for Transport of London Department of Transpo	7.5	The City Corporation will seek to develop and apply innovative approaches to develop a measure of risk in the City.	City Corporation	City Police
The City Police will ensure that it signposts and refers individuals to the specialist services that exist, to aid and support those bereaved or seriously injured at the most difficult of times. City Police Comporation City Police City Corporation The City Police will also work with TIL, and in turn the DIT, to improve vehicle and casualty categorisation in Stats 19 collision data recording (e.g. taxi separate to private hire vehicles, bus separate to coach, micro-mobility modes set, as well as individual characteristics including disability and race). The City Police City Police City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport City Police City Pol	7.6	Contribute and act on the analysis being conducted by TfL into how unequal road danger outcomes manifest among different demographics and communities, and adopt the findings where appropriate in the Square Mile	City Corporation	Transport for London
Working with the London Ambulance Service (LAS) and the Police to ensure that medical equipment is readily available and accessible when or where it is needed within the City e.g. defibrillators and trauma bags City Police London Ambulance Service London Fire Brigade City Police City Corporation MONITORING, EVALUATION AND DATA IMPROVEMENTS Develop further monitoring, evaluation and data improvements, along with greater reporting, to foster a proactive forward-thinking safety culture in the Square Mile The City Corporation and City Police will also work with TiL, and in rum the DiT, to improve vehicle and casualty categorisation in Stats 19 collision data recording (e.g. taxi separate to private hire vehicles, bus separate to coach, micro-mobility modes etc, as well as individual characteristics including disability and race). City Police City Police City Corporation City Police City Corporation Transport The Corporation will explore ways to identify how individuals' perception of safety needs to be improved most, along with ways to improve it through danger reduction interventions, marketing and communications. City Corporation Tansport for London Department for Transport The Corporation will explore ways to identify how individuals' perception of safety needs to be improved most, along with ways to improve it through danger reduction interventions, marketing and communications.	18	Support will be improved for those that suffer the most from the effects of fatal and serious collisions, with emergency service partners prioritised in access to collision sites.	City Police
Work closely with emergency services when developing traffic restrictions to reduce potential impacts on emergency response times Montroring Evaluation and Data Improvements along with greater reporting, to foster a proactive forward-thinking safety culture in the Square Mile Develop further monitoring, evaluation and data improvements, along with greater reporting, to foster a proactive forward-thinking safety culture in the Square Mile The City Police will further improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions. City Police	3.1	The City Police will ensure that it signposts and refers individuals to the specialist services that exist, to aid and support those bereaved or seriously injured at the most difficult of times.	City Police
MONITORING, EVALUATION AND DATA IMPROVEMENTS Develop further monitoring, evaluation and data improvements, along with greater reporting, to foster a proactive forward-thinking safety culture in the Square Mile The City Corporation and City Police will also work with TIL, and in turn the DIT, to improve vehicle and casualty categorisation in Stats 19 collision data recording (e.g. taxi separate to private hire vehicles, bus separate to coach, micro-mobility modes etc, as well as individual characteristics including disability and race). London Fire Brigade City Police City Corporation London Fire Brigade City Police City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport Transport for London Department for Transport The Corporation will explore ways to identify how individuals' perception of safety needs to be improved most, along with ways to improve it through danger reduction interventions, marketing and communications. London Fire Brigade City Corporation City Corporation City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport	3.2	Working with the London Ambulance Service (LAS) and the Police to ensure that medical equipment is readily available and accessible when or where it is needed within the City e.g. defibrillators and trauma bags	City Police	City Police
Develop further monitoring, evaluation and data improvements, along with greater reporting, to foster a proactive forward-thinking safety culture in the Square Mile The City Police will further improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions. City Police The City Corporation and City Police will also work with TfL, and in turn the DfT, to improve vehicle and casualty categorisation in Stats 19 collision data recording (e.g. taxi separate to private hire vehicles, bus separate to coach, micro-mobility modes etc, as well as individual characteristics including disability and race). City Police City Police City Police City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport The Corporation will explore ways to identify how individuals' perception of safety needs to be improved most, along with ways to improve it through danger reduction interventions, marketing and communications.	8.3	Work closely with emergency services when developing traffic restrictions to reduce potential impacts on emergency response times	City Corporation	London Fire Brigade
Develop further monitoring, evaluation and data improvements, along with greater reporting, to foster a proactive forward-thinking safety culture in the Square Mile The City Police will further improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions. City Police The City Corporation and City Police will also work with TfL, and in turn the DfT, to improve vehicle and casualty categorisation in Stats 19 collision data recording (e.g. taxi separate to private hire vehicles, bus separate to coach, micro-mobility modes etc, as well as individual characteristics including disability and race). City Police City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport The Corporation will explore ways to identify how individuals' perception of safety needs to be improved most, along with ways to improve it through danger reduction interventions, marketing and communications.		Work discosty man of host miles detailed to reduce perential impacts on only gency responde times	City Corporation
The City Police will further improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions. City Police The City Corporation and City Police will also work with TfL, and in turn the DfT, to improve vehicle and casualty categorisation in Stats 19 collision data recording (e.g. taxi separate to private hire vehicles, bus separate to coach, micro-mobility modes etc, as well as individual characteristics including disability and race). City Police City Police City Police City Corporation Transport for London Department for Transport The Corporation will explore ways to identify how individuals' perception of safety needs to be improved most, along with ways to improve it through danger reduction interventions, marketing and communications.
The City Corporation and City Police will also work with TfL, and in turn the DfT, to improve vehicle and casualty categorisation in Stats 19 collision data recording (e.g. taxi separate to private hire vehicles, bus separate to coach, micro-mobility modes etc, as well as individual characteristics including disability and race). City Police City Police City Police Transport for London Department for Transport The Corporation will explore ways to identify how individuals' perception of safety needs to be improved most, along with ways to improve it through danger reduction interventions, marketing and communications.	19	Develop further monitoring, evaluation and data improvements, along with greater reporting, to foster a proactive forward-thinking safety culture in the Square Mile	City Corporation modes etc, as well as individual characteristics including disability and race). City Police City Police Transport for London Department for Transport The Corporation will explore ways to identify how individuals' perception of safety needs to be improved most, along with ways to improve it through danger reduction interventions, marketing and communications. City Corporation City Corporation	9.1	The City Police will further improve the accuracy of collision reporting, through additional training for officers and awareness raising of the importance of understanding causation factors in preventing future collisions.	City Police
The Corporation will explore ways to identify flow individuals perception of safety needs to be improved thost, along with ways to improve it through danger reduction interventions.	9.2		City Police	Transport for London
The development of a suite of outcome-oriented 'lead' performance indicators, in support of the overarching fatal and serious injury reduction target City Police	9.3	The Corporation will explore ways to identify how individuals' perception of safety needs to be improved most, along with ways to improve it through danger reduction interventions, marketing and communications.	City Corporation
	9.4	The development of a suite of outcome-oriented 'lead' performance indicators, in support of the overarching fatal and serious injury reduction target	City Corporation	City Police

City Police

City Corporation

City Police

The City's Vision Zero partners will promote the reporting of dangerous and illegal road user behaviour, as well as self-reporting of personal injury collisions where the police did not attend.

The City Police will publish and report more statistics relating to enforcement activity, along with criminal justice outcomes for those that have been found guilty of illegal road user behaviour.