THIS IS AN EXTERNAL EMAIL

I am writing to object to the application from The University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

This seems to be a bizarre and excessive application, involving alcohol - and therefore likely anti-social and noisy behaviour - into the early hours of the morning, in a residential area.

In light of the other noise disturbances already experienced late at night in the area (I have a flat in Bartholomew Close), I would have thought that an 11pm maximum cut-off time would be more reasonable, but would certainly object to the application as it stands, which I feel is "trying it on". It also feels at odds with the nature of the applicant's primary reason for existence (a "school of business" supplying alcohol for late-night events and parties?).

Kind regards
