The Chair informed the Board that Officers had explored options for the external members of the Board to be given voting rights but it was confirmed this was precluded by the 1972 Local Government Act. The Board agreed that, in instances where the Board were to go to a formal vote, that the views of those external members present at the meeting in question be sought before the Board proceeded to vote. It was observed that this could be included in the Board's handbook which would be updated ready for the beginning of the new civic year in April.

The Chair observed that in points (h) and (i), the City of London Police were listed as the National Lead Force for economic crime but that more appropriate wording needed to be established for inclusion that better defined the Force's role.
