2.	14/09/21	Aldermanic Allowance - further consideration and possible review of the clothing allowance provision at a future meeting, given the new financial scheme accessible by all Common Councillors.	Robert Woodvine / Caroline Jack	February 2023	The use of the clothing allowances (both gowns and dress items) have been reviewed since they were put in place in 2018. Officers have also looked at some of the detail around the Members Financial Loss Scheme, and the situation with the current stock of Aldermanic gowns. Alongside this, we've had an unusual year with six new Alderman requesting assistance with clothing items. As we conclude the latest purchasing for new Aldermen, Officers will look further into the annual funds available and the development of adequate gown stock, with the aspiration to align with the CC in this area. Further thought will then need to be put into defining the dress items needed, as there are specific ceremonial items that could be assigned a clothing budget, allowing for more standard dress items e.g. morning suits, to be covered under the broader Members Financial Loss Scheme.
