

Project Governance review

Skills and Capabilities

23 January 2023

The challenge

- The scope
 - A review of organisational capability by undertaking a corporation training needs analysis (building on previous work)
- Deliverable outputs
 - Analysis of current skills identified to create 'as is' picture via skills and capability survey
 - Capability framework descriptions for key PPM roles to support future portfolio TOM
- Deliverable outcome
 - Understanding of organisational capability (PMO ecosystem) to deliver improvement plan including skills analysis.

What we did

- A skills and capability survey was run to establish a baseline view of skills and capability within the organisation to inform what would be needed to support a portfolio approach to deliver the City of London improvement plan.
- The survey consisted of 35 questions mostly multiple choice but with some free text boxes to provide both qualitative and quantitative data.
- This was sent to 70+ project and programme managers across the corporation and the institutions.
- 52 people responded which is statistically significant.

Summary

Quantitative data showed:

- Gaps in skills and capability for programme management, SRO, Change Management and Benefits Management.
- Good skills and capability in Project Management.
- ⑩ Staff would welcome further training on programme and project management
- Low maturity of the organisation in terms of a Portfolio delivery approach.

Qualitative data showed:

- Change control management is elongated and unnecessarily complicated.
- Many projects and programmes are managed on top of the day job, this has the follow impacts:
 - Reduced capacity to do project management well – stress and impact on health.
 - Managing multiple stakeholders is a challenge

Proposal

If you wish to move to a more structured portfolio delivery model it is proposed that the gaps in skills and capability are addressed.

To support effective portfolio management, it is important that each role has defined, key responsibilities, technical and behavioural competencies and qualifications.

Consideration would need to be given to how the organisation meets these gaps in the short term as training would need to be front loaded to ensure the right skills and capability are in place to support a successful implementation.

To measure the impact of improving the skills and capability of the portfolio is it proposed that the survey is run again during implementation.

Recommendation

If you wish to move to a structured and comprehensive portfolio model, the following recommendation is key to ensuring the right skills and capability are in place.

- It is recommended that a structured and focused L and D model should be adopted, such as the Project Delivery Capability Framework. This is an excellent tool which describes job roles, capabilities and learning for project delivery professionals across government. It contains four elements:
 - A career pathway/ common set of job roles
 - A set of competencies
 - A signpost for development opportunities specific to job roles
 - The criteria and process to obtain accreditation as a Government Project Delivery Professional.
