

Report – City of London Police Authority Board

Refreshed City of London Policing Plan 2022-25

To be presented on Thursday, 25th April 2024

To the Right Honourable The Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled.

SUMMARY

1. The City of London Policing Plan 2022-25 informs the community, stakeholders and staff how the City area is to be policed. The Force and Court of Common Council (in its capacity as a police authority) are required to continue to publish a policing plan by the Police Act 1996 due to being exempt from the legislative requirement to publish a police and crime plan.
2. Policing plans must have regard to any national strategic policing priorities stipulated by the Home Secretary. Such priorities are currently articulated by the Strategic Policing Requirement; the Force's approach to this appears in the Plan. Additionally, the Plan takes account of Government policy statements regarding reducing crime, addressing antisocial behaviours, supporting the vulnerable, accountability and value for money.
3. The original 2022-25 Plan was approved by the Police Authority Board in February 2022, but there is a requirement to review and republish the Plan annually. In order to inform this year's version, wide ranging consultation was undertaken, including a Court of Common Council Member Briefing held on the 11th January 2023, and the annual community survey in October 2023. The Plan was refreshed in response to this consultation and approved by the City of London Police Authority Board in February 2024 and is hereby submitted to the Court for information.
4. The full City of London Policing Plan 2022-25 is available in hard copy upon request to the Town Clerk's Department and a web version of the report has been produced this year which can be found at Policing Plan | City of London Police
