

Appendix 8

Figure 1: Area included in the Bank junction traffic model

The red dots represent signalised junctions and the blue dots show priority junctions that have been included in the traffic model.

The size of the model is a consequence of it being developed to test, both individually and in combination, the City Cluster schemes and All change at Bank schemes during the design development of All Change at Bank in 2020/2021.