Summary

The Terms of Reference of the Education Board allows for the appointment of up to four external representatives with appropriate expertise in the field of education. There are currently three external representatives to the Education Board, therefore a fourth representative is sought to replace Mary Robey who resigned her membership on 10 June 2024 during a term that was set to expire on 30 October 2025.

Recommendation

The Nominations Sub (Education Board) Committee is asked to agree to invite one of the applicants to join the Board as an external Member to replace Mary Robey for a term initially expiring on 30 October 2025 (renewable for a further four years), taking into account the skills and experience offered by the candidates.
