THE GENERAL CONDITIONS OF DELEGATIONS

Overall Delegations to Officers:

The Court of Common Council has agreed the principle that authority should be delegated to Chief Officers (and their nominated Deputies or Assistants) for carrying out the day-to-day management of all services and for the discharge of specific statutory and non-statutory functions.

All delegations to officers are subject to any statutory provisions which apply; the exclusion of any matters which remain for decision by the Court and/or any Committee unless specifically delegated to a particular officer; and accountability to the Court and/or any Committee in respect of decisions made under delegated authority.

Day-to-Day Management

Chief Officers (and their nominated Deputies or Assistants) are authorised to implement agreed policies and to act on the City of London Corporation's behalf in the discharge of its statutory and non-statutory functions and to exercise powers in relation to the day-to-day management of the service area for which they are responsible. (Day-to-day management should include those items which have been recognised as such by past practice or by specific decision/resolution, or where the Town Clerk, in consultation with the Chief Officers, agrees is ancillary to or analogous with matters accepted as being within the scope of day-to-day business exercisable by officers.) This includes authority to:-

- (i) appoint and manage staff in accordance with agreed policies and procedures, except in respect of appointments and dismissals in relation to posts graded H and above and where this scheme of delegation indicates otherwise.
- (ii) undertake staff re-organisation in accordance with agreed policies and procedures and within budget limitations;
- (iii) place orders and enter into contracts for the supply of goods and services in line with the Procurement Regulations and to authorise or incur any other expenditure for which provision has been made in the appropriate budget or capital programme subject to limits set out in Standing Orders and Financial Regulations and subject to these not being in conflict with existing contracts;
- (iv) Manage any physical assets, including land and buildings for which the relevant Chief Officer is responsible, subject always to the advice of the City Surveyor and any relevant policies and strategies in relation to property asset management.

Limitations

1. Any exercise of delegated powers by officers shall -
 - a) comply with the City of London Corporation's Standing Orders, Financial Regulations, Project Management Procedure and Procurement Regulations;
 - b) have regard to any agreed policies, objectives and service standards including any management directions;
 - c) Have regard to the overall management and co-ordination of the work of the City Corporation and the achievement of corporate standards.
 - d) not authorise expenditure except in accordance with approved revenue estimates or capital programmes;

- e) not involve a new policy or extend an existing policy of the City of London Corporation (except where the Town Clerk & Chief Executive is acting in accordance with urgency powers);
 - f) be in accordance with any existing approved scheme or direction of the City of London Corporation, its Committees or Sub-Committees;
 - g) be the subject of prior consultations with the appropriate professional or technical officers of the City of London Corporation where technical and professional considerations are concerned which are not within the province of the Chief Officer.
2. Any delegation to a Chief Officer may be exercised by any officer authorised by the Chief Officer either generally or specifically for the purpose (except where restrictions exist in employment policies). The Town Clerk may exercise any function delegated to a Chief Officer at his discretion.
 3. All delegation is without prejudice to the jurisdiction of the City of London Corporation or of the relevant Committee or Sub-Committee. Any officer may refer a matter to a Committee or Sub-Committee in lieu of exercising delegated powers.
 4. Subject to the foregoing conditions and to any special conditions which may have been or may in future be applied in respect of particular matters Chief Officers will be expected to make such decisions and to initiate such action as they deem necessary in the interests of the efficient running of their departments and the services which they administer.
 5. Within their terms of delegation any reference to a statutory provision shall be deemed to refer to any statutory re-enactment or amendment of the provision.

The following powers are delegated to Chief Officers:
