“street trading licence” means a licence to engage in street trading granted under Part III of the Act.

2. A licensed street trader shall not use a receptacle under the authority of a street trading licence unless it is so constructed as to be easily and immediately removable without the necessity of undressing the receptacle, and no accessories shall be attached thereto which would be likely to cause damage to the street.

3. A licensed street trader shall not, except for the purposes of supplying artificial light, cause or permit a receptacle used by him to be connected physically in any manner with any other receptacle, or any premises or property.

Provided that any connection for the purpose of supplying artificial light shall be readily detachable.

4. A licensed street trader shall not use a receptacle for street trading exceeding 7 feet in length, 4 feet 3 inches in width and 10 feet in height measured from the ground level.
5. [no longer applicable]
6. A licensed street trader shall not place a receptacle in such a manner as to project over the footway and where practicable shall place the receptacle along the curb-line. A receptacle may have an awning or roof projecting not more than 2 feet to the front and 2 feet to the rear of the receptacle (the front of the receptacle for this purpose is the side facing the footway).

Provided that any such awning or roof, including its supports, if any, shall insofar as they so project be in every part not less than 7 feet above the highway, and no articles or things shall be suspended from such awning or roof so as to reduce the headroom to less than 7 feet.

7. [no longer applicable]
8. A licensed street trader or a registered street trader shall not cause or permit any article or thing to project beyond or be placed alongside or around any receptacle used by him or be placed above the height of 10 feet measured from ground level.

Provided that the space immediately beneath the receptacle may be used for the deposit of articles or things, provided always that the street gullies are not obstructed thereby.

9. [no longer applicable]
10. [no longer applicable]
11. A licensed street trader or his assistant, shall when required by an officer of the City of London Police immediately remove his receptacle, articles or things temporarily, for so long a period as may be necessary from the space in front of any premises where their presence unduly obstructs or hinders the approach to or departure from such premises of persons or vehicles.

12. A licensed street trader or his assistant, or registered street trader, shall immediately remove his receptacle, articles or things temporarily for so long as may be necessary if required to do so by an officer of the City of London Police in the event of an emergency or in the exercise by the Corporation of any of their powers and duties.
13. A licensed street trader whilst engaged in street trading shall produce his street trading licence, [...], for inspection when requested to do so by an officer of the City of London Police or by an Inspector appointed by the Common Council of the City of London under the Shops Act, 1950.
14. [no longer applicable]
15. A licensed street trader shall cause all refuse, scraps, waste material, litter or rubbish arising from his street trading to be placed in suitable covered containers which shall be supplied by him and shall be kept exclusively for that purpose and he shall cause all such containers to be kept in a reasonably clean state, regard being had to the purposes for which they are provided, and shall cause such containers to be emptied as often as they are full into Refuse Containers provided by the Corporation.
16. A licensed street trader and any assistant shall demonstrate, offer for sale or sell goods only whilst standing at ground level or whilst sitting on a chair, box or other object placed at ground level, the height of such chair, box or other object not being in excess of 20 inches.
17. A licensed street trader shall not use or cause or permit to be used on any receptacle used by him for street trading, any system of lighting which includes any of the following types of equipment:-
 - (a) equipment not readily detachable.
 - (b) electricity leads exceeding five yards in length.
 - (c) candles or other naked lights unless the same are surrounded by a non-flammable and windproof shield.
18. The amount of the charges which the Corporation are authorised to make under Section 19 of the Act for the removal of refuse or other services rendered by them to licensed street traders, in respect of expenses incurred by them in the administration of Part III of the Act, and in the cleansing of that part of Middlesex Street in the City of London in which street trading takes place, shall not exceed [£15 per week].

19. Any person who shall offend against any of the foregoing byelaws shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding [£500] and in the case of a continuing offence, to a further penalty not exceeding [???] for each day during which the offence continues after conviction therefor.

Examined.
